We May Never Pass This Way Again

Life -- so they say
Is but a game and they let it slip away
Love -- like the Autumn sun
Should be dying but it's only just begun
Like the twilight in the road up ahead
They don't see just where we're goin'
And all the secrets in the universe
Whisper in our ears and all the years will come and go
And take us up -- always up

We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again
We may never pass this way again

Dreams -- so they say
Are for the fools and they let them drift away
Peace -- like the silent dove
Should be flying but it's only just begun
Like Columbus in the olden days
We must gather all our courage
Sail our ships out on the open sea
Cast away our fears and all the years will come and go
And take us up -- always up

So I wanna laugh while the laughing is easy
I wanna cry if it makes it worthwhile
I may never pass this way again
That's why I want it with you
Cause you make me feel like I'm more than a friend
Like I'm the journey and you're the journey's end
I may never pass this way again
That's why I want it with you baby

We may never pass this way again

ADMINISTRATION

In every working establishment, there must exist a body which exerts control over affairs to insure efficiency. This is the administration. At Westport High, matters are ably handled by Superintendent James Francis, Principal Edmie Bibeau and Vice Principal Charles Menard. These dedicated men have been directly responsible for many improvements concerning student life in WHS. Their accomplishments include a snack bar, a student lounge, and a more powerful student government. As in any institution, this body is often the topic of much criticism. Both Mr. Bibeau and Mr. Menard are striving to keep disagreements and misunderstandings to a minimum by encouraging open-mindedness and good communications among students, administration, and faculty.

FROM US TO YOU, VILLAGER 1975, DEDICATED . . . TO OUR PARENTS

Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.
They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.
For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.

You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.
The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far.
Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness;
For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so He loves also the bow that is stable.

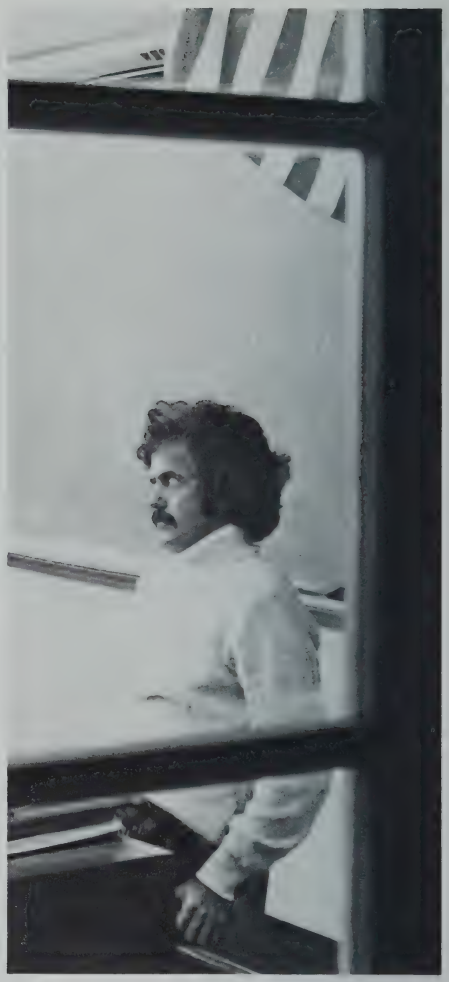
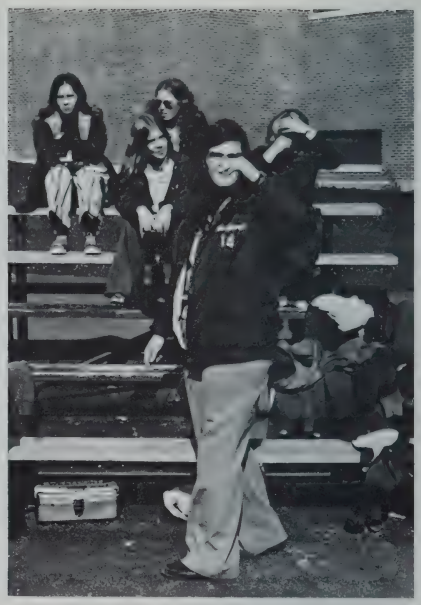
"I'm not one who make believes . . .



. . . I know that leaves are green

. . . They only turn brown when autumn comes around . . .

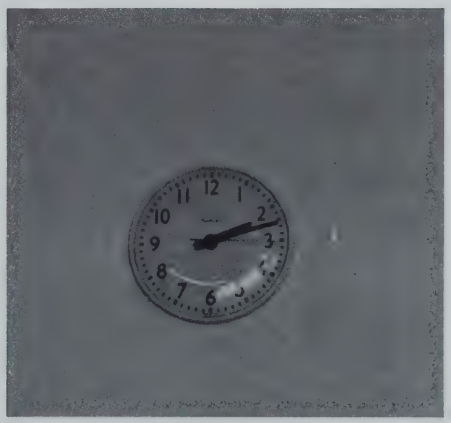


. . . I know just what I say

. . . Today's not yesterday . . .

. . . And all things have an ending."

Stevie Wonder



It seems to me a crime that
We should age
These fragile times should Never pass us by
A time we never can or Shall erase
As friends together watch
Their childhood fly.

UNDER CLASSMEN

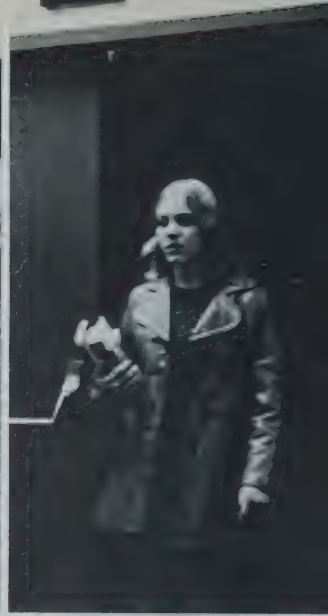
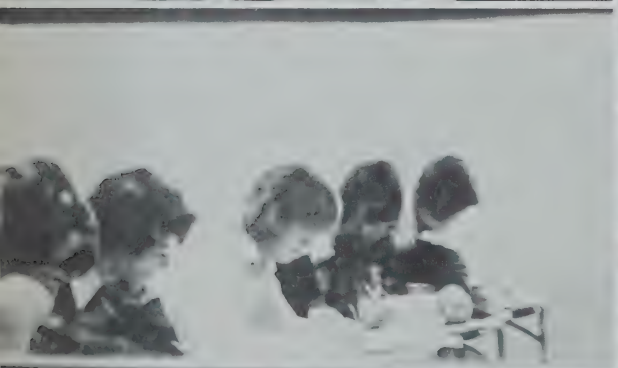
The decisions and responsibilities involved with becoming Seniors now rest with the Junior Class. The Juniors realize this and have been raising money, through candy and cake sales, to cover the costs of a Senior prom and banquet, as well as the costs of yearbook publication. Under the direction of advisor Mr. Dean and the class officers, president, Lornalee Tripp; vice president, Mary Machado; treasurer, Kathy Leach; and secretary, Pam Mercier, the Juniors should prove to be very successful.

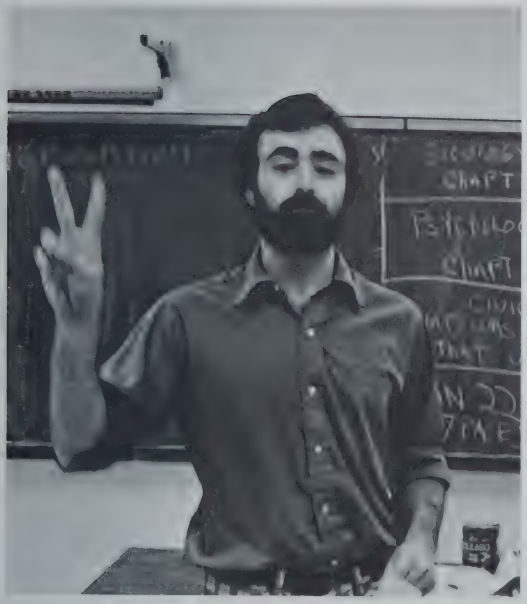
Advisor Mr. Dean

THE BEST . . .

. . . IS YET TO COME!



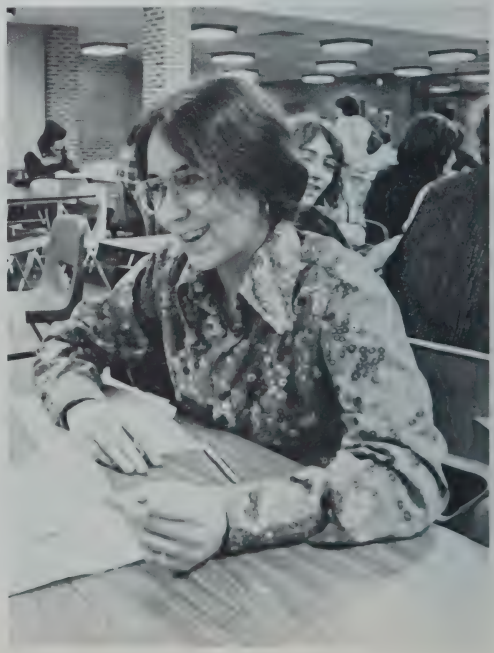


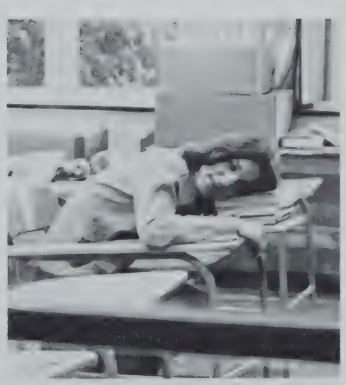


After having much trouble finding an advisor, the Sophomore Class elected Mr. Phelan to the position. Mr. Phelan accepted the job and soon, the class began raising money for its treasury. Under president Bonnie Morse, vice president Paulette Bouchard, treasurer Jean Amaral, and secretary Lisa Barlow, the sophomores had a very successful year. Good luck!

IT'S A LONG,

HARD CLIMB.





The Freshman Class is under a female administration (Janet Texeira, president; Henrietta Jones, vice president; Debbie Mulgrew, treasurer; and Donna Medeiros, secretary). The Freshmen got an early start with their fund raising the first term of the school year. They have amazed many with their enthusiasm, participation in sports, and school spirit. We wish them the best.

Advisor: Mr. Gillis

"I feel we had a most successful season and I'm very proud of our team," is how Coach Souza sums up this year's soccer team. Though the Villagers had their troubles at the beginning of the season, they came back victoriously, trampling over their last four challengers to capture third place in a very competitive league of eleven teams. Six starting seniors, newly appointed assistant coach, Bill Fenney, and Mr. Souza's 18 years of coaching experience were important factors responsible for this year's success.

Experience is the best teacher, and so was it with the girls' field hockey team. Despite the return of a few veterans, Coach Joan Carpenter, built a rookie team that placed third in the Central Division of the Southeastern Mass. Conference - Division II.

The highlight of the season was the game against Bishop Stang; Westport was the only team to score against them and then gave them their only defeat.

"The only reason why we didn't take first place is due to our lack of experience. We are graduating 2 seniors: co-captains Cindy Raposa and Cindy Vieira. If all of this year's participants return next year, a very successful season is on the way," stated Coach Carpenter.

We congratulate this year's basketball team for establishing a winning season of 11 wins and 9 losses. The Villagers had a well balanced attack composed of 2 seniors, 2 juniors, and 1 sophomore. The high points of the season were an upset against Diman and post-season playing in the Bay State Tournament. Disappointment was bestowed upon the team in an overtime game against New Bedford Voke. The one point set back elimimated Westport from consideration for the Massachusetts Tech. Tournament.

GESUNDHEIT!
TODAY'S EARTQUAKE

The Honor Society got off to a quick start and elected Vernon Cahoon, president; Debbie Smusz, vice president; Holly Santos, treasurer; and Debbi Manchester, secretary. Many of the members tutor students having trouble with their studies or help with the students with special needs at the Macomber School. The help of these volunteers is beneficial to and appreciated by all.

This year, new power was given to Student Council by the administration. Thus, the Council has played a more active and important role in WHS than in previous years. The Council now has the power to set up Activity Periods and to grant or to prohibit meetings of classes and clubs. The decision to let the Freshmen Class have study in the student lounge and the appointing of student monitors to patrol the halls during Activity Periods were done by this year's Student Council. We hope that next year's members of the Council are as responsible as their predecessors have been.

The closest that WHS has to a library science course is the Media Center Aide program. The students in this program are volunteers who enjoy working with audio-visual and printed materials. Media Center Aides shelve books, as well as man the sign-out desk. They make the Media Center a much more organized place to work.

The services of the Office Aides are invaluable. The extra help frees the secretaries and enables them to do the more important work around the Main Office. The Aides are, at the same time, getting valuable office practice. The program is an excellent one and it is beneficial to everyone concerned.

The Student Representatives were elected to voice the opinions of WHS students to the school committee. They are the students responsible for bringing student complaints up for discussion at committee meetings. The opinions voiced by these people are considered by the members of the committee before voting on any high school issue.

The Future Teachers got off to a slow start this year. The tutoring program which was begun last year was continued this year. The selling of carnations raised money which supplies the funds for a FTA scholarship. This year's FTA officers are president Debbie Smusz, vice president Cindy Vieira, treasurer Debbie Smeaton, and secretary-librarian Pam Thibaut.

The WHS disc jockeys are responsible for the piped-in music in the study hall. Mr. Hickey got permission for the mock radio station and the students did the rest. The radio shows are taped and then played back during the day in the cafeteria. The taping of these shows is hard work and time consuming; the students of WHS owe much to these disc jockeys who volunteer their time for the students' listening pleasure.

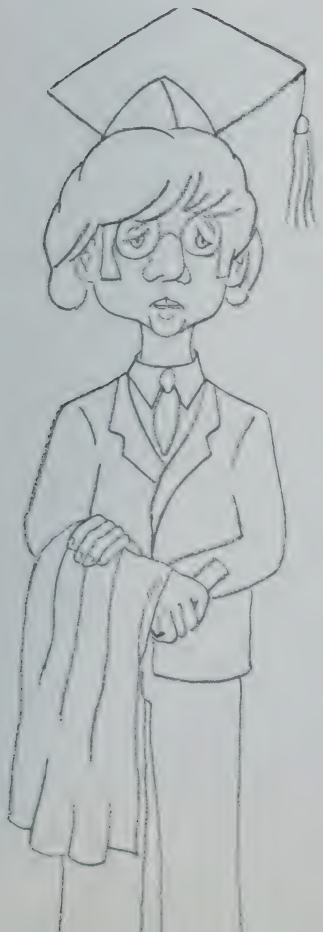
The Senior Class owes much to the cafeteria workers and would like to take this time to show its appreciation. Without the generous help of these women, many of our projects would have been impossible to complete. These workers have helped us with two Spaghetti and one Ham and Bean suppers. All of these projects were successful because of their help. Thanks!

THOSE WERE THE YEARS!

GIRLS



We've come so far
and tried so much,
always keeping in mind
how good the gift of life is,
...but what do we do now?

Dreams tell us to leave
reach out grow
explore.

Our hearts beckon us
to stay with safety
family
friends
love.

Torn. We are torn as autumn leaves are torn from trees by brutal winds.

To leave is to enter
confusion
insecurity loneliness.

To stay is to be patronized
defended sheltered...
...,WHS,...
Goodbye.
